Опис вакансії

Speroteck is a talented group of architects, developers and retail experts working with such platforms as Magento, Demandware and Hybris.

Due to exploding growth, we are searching for a Demandware Technical Lead to join our Demandware development team.

We are looking for people with a passion for working with innovative solutions

Required skills:

- experience with Demandware for at least 3 years
- experience of team lead or tech lead work
- strong experience with integrations, such as real-time data exchange with web services, asynchronous file exchange etc.
- ability to learn new skills quickly
- strong problem solving skills
- strong communication skills
- strong level of English

We offer:

- Competitive compensation depending on experience and skills;
- Regular assessments and salary reviews;
- Social package;
- Free English classes with native speakers (certified English teachers);
- Opportunities for self-realization;
- Friendly team and enjoyable working environment;
- Flexible working schedule;
- Business trips

Our small team is growing fast. We'd love your help in making Speroteck truly special!
